

COASTAL SCREEN

All species are/have : -

- Dense bushy habit
- Tolerant to Salt spray and wind
- Tolerant to Alkaline and poor soils
- Interesting foliage
- Range of flowering times and colours
- Wildlife value (including birds)
- Usually available at GCLN

Acacia littorea (Shark fin Wattle)

Medium shrub, 3 m x 2 m. Dense upright growth habit.

Triangular pale green phyllodes, wildlife friendly

Pale yellow, perfumed flower clusters, Sept. to Nov.

Edible seed, gum, bardies

Acacia cochlearis (Rigid Wattle)

Medium shrub, 2 m x 2 m, Dense arching growth habit.

Slender bright green, rigid phyllodes

Bright yellow flower clusters , Aug. to Oct.

Edible seed, gum, bardies. Wildlife friendly

Spyridium globulosum (Basket bush)

Medium shrub, 4 m x 3 m. Dense bushy growth habit

Leaves glossy dark green above, white below,

Small white flowers in large clusters, perfumed.

Cultural significance related to Possums.

Beyeria viscosa (Pinkwood)

Large shrub, 5 m x 4 m. Dense bushy growth habit

Interesting “olive-like” foliage, Pinkish new growth

Small separate sex flowers, Monoecious.

Heavily worked by Bees. DOES NOT BURN !!!

Templetonia retusa (Cockies tongue)

Medium shrub, 3 m x 2 m. dense upright growth habit.

Dull, dark-green, rounded foliage

Large red pea shaped flowers, June to Sept.

Great bird plant, Cultural significance

Calothamnus quadrifidus “ grey form” (One-sided bottlebrush)

Medium shrub, 3 m x 3 m. dense spreading growth habit

Needle-like furry grey foliage, Red “claw flowers, in dense clusters on old wood. Sept. to Dec.

Heavily worked by birds and bees, “yeasty” perfume.

Myoporum caprarioides (Slender Myoporum)

Medium shrub, 2 m x 2 m. Dense upright growth habit.

Small, glossy bright green leaves,

Lots of small white starry flowers, most months

Small edible pink berries, Cultural significance.