

ROD'S BEST BIRD ATTRACTING PLANTS

This is a list of Rod Cary's best bird attracting plants.

- a variety of forms and sizes
  - all have multiple uses for birds including nectar, pollen, insects, nesting materials, seeds, nesting sites, and harbourage
  - grow in a range of habitats
  - are mostly suitable for gardens
- most have attractive flowers and interesting foliage
  - will tolerate local soils and conditions
  - attract a variety of birds including honeyeaters, insectivores and seed eaters
  - are usually available at our nursery

Scientific Name	Common Name
Acacia species	Wattles
Adenanthos species
Anigozanthos species	Kangaroo Paws
Banksia attenuata	Slender Banksia
Banksia littoralis	Swamp Banksia
Banksia species
Callistemon species	Bottlebrushes
Corymbia haematoxylon	Mountain Marri
Eremophila gabra, various
Eremophila species
Eucalyptus cornuta	Yate
Grevillea species
Hakea lasianthoides
Hakea oleifolia	Dungyn, Olive-leaved Hakea
Kennedia species
Melaleuca raphiophylla	Swamp Paperbark
Melaleuca species
Paraserianthes lophantha	Cape Leeuwin Wattle/Albizia
Rhagodia baccata	Berry Saltbush
Templetonia retusa	Cockies Tongues